12 ayes, 24 nays, 13 not voting Mr. President.

SENATOR SAVAGE: The amendment fails. You can't change your vote right now. Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Point of order Mr. Speaker. Senator Dickinson did change before he announced his vote. You didn't hear him and neither did Mr. Radcliffe. I'll vouch for that.

SENATOR SAVAGE: The Chair overrules. Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: What is the rule concerning change of vote Mr. President? Is it legal to change a vote prior to calling of a vote and on a record vote?

SENATOR SAVAGE: It has to be changed before the vote is announced and the Speaker or the Clerk says that he didn't hear you.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Believe you me next time I'll jump up and . . . jump up and down and holler. How is one supposed to be heard? I was trying to be polite and waiting till he got . . .

SENATOR SAVAGE: Do you want to challenge the Chair, Senator Dickinson?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Pardon?

SENATOR SAVAGE: Would you like to challenge the Chair?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Yes, I'll challenge the Chair.

SENATOR SAVAGE: OK. Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, would you tell us how we should vote up here? If we're sustaining you how do you want to do it?

SENATOR SAVAGE: If you sustain the Chair vote green.

SENATOR BARNETT: Thank you.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 7 nays, 17 not voting Mr. President.
